T-Shaped .NET Developer, Cloud Architect,
Agile Practitioner

Date: 20th April 2023

Dear Sir/Madam,

I recently have heard about a Job post from LinkedIn Messages for a Full-stack .NET Architect role at The Functionary. After reading the job description I am confident that I would be a perfect fit for your position as my skills, ability and future potential precisely match your requirements.

Without wishing to sound boastful, I feel that I come to you with a background that is unique and distinctive from other applicants. My core strengths include, but not limited to the following:

- Architecting distributed systems with scalable cloud-native architecture.
- Designing, Building and Testing cross platform web, mobile and desktop applications using .NET and .NET Core.
- Building Web Services using RESTful architecture, GraphQL and gRPC
- Designing relational DB & normalization and designing No-SQL DB & de-normalization.
- Decoupled and Cohesive Architecture using Vertical slices, Messaging with RabbitMQ, Event Sourcing with PostGres, Event Streaming with Kafka.
- Configuring CI/CD pipeline to automate multi-staged build, test, static code analysis and deployment process to ensure continuous improvement, testing and thus incremental delivery.
- Front-End Development using Angular, React, React Native, Blazor and Xamarin
- Able to work in a scrum team to maintain agility.

For additional information about my capabilities please view my attached resume.

I would welcome the chance of an interview, where we would be able to discuss in greater detail the value and strength I can bring to your already successful company.

Thank you very much for your time and I eagerly look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Rafsanul Hasan
